

University of Wisconsin – Madison

2023 Native November Keynote

Dallas Goldtooth

November 30th, 2023

7:00 - 9:00PM

Gordon Dining & Event Center

Dallas Goldtooth is a writer, actor, playwright, film producer, poet, and comedian. He is Dakota from the village of Cansayapi within the territory of the Oceti Sakowin people. He is most known for writing and acting in the groundbreaking FX series, Reservation Dogs. He is the co-creator of the Indigenous comedy group, The 1491s, and a climate change activist with his non-profit The Indigenous Environmental Network.

RSVP by visiting <https://linktr.ee/isc.uwmadison>

MSC
MULTICULTURAL STUDENT CENTER

Programming supported by the Indigenous Student Center within the Multicultural Student Center in Student Affairs. Additionally Sponsored by the Dean of Students and the Wisconsin Alumni Association.

College of Letters and Science
Center for Cultural Enrichment
Academic Coaching to Thrive and Succeed
Nelson Institute of Environmental Studies

Wunk Sheek
Mental Health Services
Office of Tribal Relations

This event is free and open to the public. For accommodations contact isc@studentaffairs.wisc.edu or 608-265-4757

