

2026 Black History Month Keynote

Yolo Akili Robinson

Black Love as A Practice: A WorkShop to Help us Embody The Love We Desire

Wed, February 18, 2026

Great Hall, Memorial Union

Doors Open at 6:30pm

FREE & OPEN TO PUBLIC

Yolo Akili Robinson (he/they) is a non-binary, award-winning writer, healing justice practitioner, yogi, and the founder and Executive Director of the Black Emotional and Mental Health Collective (BEAM). Yolo will guide us through a reflective, interactive workshop to help us examine how Black Love shows up in our behaviors, choices, and relationships.

RSVP and event details available at linktr.ee/uwmadisonbcc

SPONSORED BY: African American Studies | Dean of Students | Multicultural Student Center | Rebecca M. Blank Center for Campus History | Residence Life | Wisconsin Unions | Wisconsin Alumni Association

Wheelchair Accessible & CART Captioning Available. Questions? (608) 262-2014 or bcc@studentaffairs.wisc.edu